

PROEBIZ s.r.o. terms and conditions for the use of cookies

The user acknowledges that a prerequisite for the proper operation of the PROEBIZ TENDERBOX system provided by PROEBIZ s.r.o., ID 64616398, Masaryk Square 33, 702 00 Ostrava (hereinafter PROEBIZ) is the use of cookie data files.

I. What are cookies?

Cookies are small data files which are stored into the user's computer via a web browser. Their purpose is to recognise users of particular websites and store their user preferences. The use of cookies poses no risk to computers or other devices such as tablets or smartphones.

II. Why do we use cookies?

The PROEBIZ TENDERBOX system uses cookies to store information necessary for the user and next time they visit it can be recalled. This information includes the chosen language and user login details, amongst other things. These cookies are essential for the proper functioning of the PROEBIZ TENDERBOX system.

PROEBIZ respects the privacy of each individual who visits its website and any information gathered during the operation of the PROEBIZ TENDERBOX system will be used to improve our service. We use cookies solely for the purpose of improving and simplifying the experience of users on our website, optimizing our web pages for their users, providing a better service for visitors to our website, and for marketing purposes. All of this is intended to improve the experience for our current and future clients.

III. Refusing to accept cookies

If you do not wish to use cookies, it is possible to leave the webpage or set the storage of cookies in your browser.

It is also possible to use "anonymous browsing" (if your browser supports it), which deletes cookies when you close the browser window.

These provisions for the use of cookies and personal privacy come into effect on 14.01.2021.
